p. 60 / ex 13

shall we do — shall — good idea — on —
No idea — shall I — yes, ok

p. 60 / ex 14

1. The man might know something important.
2. Bob has to finish the report first.
3. He couldn’t stay awake long enough.
4. The report had better be finished.
5. Cathy can get information from people.
6. She would rather go out and investigate.
7. Cathy is allowed to leave the office.
8. She needn’t come back.

p. 61 / ex 15

could (should) have called — might not have taken — must have happened — might (must) have had — can’t have had — would have run — might not have stayed — might (could) have forgotten —
might have decided — shouldn’t have gone — shouldn’t have allowed — should have made
1. She was a British reporter in the team of the “FM” (l. 112).
2. She was chasing some people who she thought were going to dump some drums. (l. 8-11)
3. He knew that Cathy was doing something dangerous. (l. 15-18)
4. Only a small number of Native Americans called "Inuit" live there. (l. 23)
5. In winter the swamps and lakes freeze so you can drive over the snow. (l. 25-27)
6. She called Bob from a gas station because her cell phone didn't work, and she wanted to follow the men who had just left the gas station. (l. 4-6)
7. They thought that in the drums there was chemical waste. (l. 10 + l. 16/17)
8. Maybe the men... (l. 17-20)
9. When they found her car there was no sign of a struggle; they looked for her until the end of March but it seemed that she had just disappeared. (l. 23-27)
10. He had to give up because it was hopeless. (l. 51/52)
1. there is nothing in it.
2. you very, very tired.
3. means doing sth. against the law.
4. live in that place.
5. you show that sth. is true.
6. (fast) help is urgently needed.
7. a place without any people.
8. it's important for you to reach a certain aim.
9. your foot or your car is fixed to one place and you can't go on.
10. power (which is) gained from water.
11. when the original parts are out of order/damaged.
12. you put all your thoughts on one single thing and think very intensively about it.

1. Cathy was looking for a story which would make her--
2. She was investigating the story (which) they'd talked about the day before.
3. Bob was worried by the message (which) he found on his--
4. ---for a company whose managers just wanted--
5. seen by the man (who was) driving the truck.
6. -- a number of drums (which had been) left in the snow.
7. -- the officers who had found the car.
8. Cathy was a colleague (who) Bob was very fond of.

1. hydroelectric
2. pothole
3. highway
4. backpack
5. supermarket
6. windshield
7. sunglasses
8. airstrip
9. headlight
10. snowstorm... swamplands
1 true: l. 1/2
2 false: l. 6/7
3 true: l. M 1/2
4 true: l. 26/127
5 false: l. 31-33
6 true: l. 45-47
7 false: l. 48
8 false: l. 49-53

---

1 settlement
2 population
3 remote
4 continue
5 enormously
6 wages
7 skill
8 sled
9 unemployed
10 bored

---

1 ... live in Nûnavût / inhabit N.
2 ... been enormous changes.
3 ... isn’t regarded as an attractive job.
4 ... how to keep warm.
5 ... fifth of the site of N.
6 ... the animals (which) the men used to hunt.

---

1 official - stories - written - by - although - endings - extremely - of - few - which / that - kind - despite - though - surf - watch - youth - part